

Distinguished delegates,

My name is Chau Anh Ngoc Tran, or Chau Anh – a passionate MUN-er who is currently studying in Ashbourne Sixth-Form College in London, the United Kingdom. It is my utmost pleasure to welcome you, our delegates, to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crimes (UNODC) committee, and I am very excited to welcome delegates to our interesting council with heated debate topics.

To me, MUN is an energy boost and offers me many great chances to meet new people who have the same mindsets as mine. TOYO MUN has been one of my favourite conferences from my first encounter for its exciting, thrilling debates as well as chances to enjoy the experience with new friends. This year in TOYO MUN 2022, I'll be serving as a Chair and work alongside Huyen Phuong and Tram Anh. When joining TOYO MUN, and especially joining UNODC, as a delegate, you will have a chance to enhance your critical thinking, writing and negotiating skills as well as collaborate with other delegates about international issues regarding economic, politics, and global corporations.

For the last words, we're all very excited to have you all in TOYO MUN 2022, and thank you for your interest in UNODC. We hope our delegates will have meaningful, productive debate as well as enjoying every moment in TOYO MUN. See you in the conference soon!
